A performance by the 'DANISH STRING QUARTET' at PLAISTERERS' HALL –
One London Wall, London, EC2Y 5JU on Monday 22nd June 2015 @ 19:30 hours
Presented by the City of London Festival (COLF)

Our first individual event for the Club's 125th Anniversary Year is a visit to Plaisterers' Hall for an evening of classical and contemporary music by the acclaimed 'Danish String Quartet' followed by a light supper.

The Danish String Quartet is internationally acclaimed for its dynamic performance and fresh interpretation of well-known repertoire. The Nordic foursome holds a unique position in classical ensembles, with its passion for Scandinavian composers, folk and contemporary programmes for which they have drawn praise from critics, audiences and fellow musicians.

For their City of London Festival debut, the Quartet brings a wonderfully refreshing programme of classical music to the heart of the City, in the supremely elegant Plaisterers' Hall. Their repertoire will include classics by Beethoven and Danish composer Carl Nielsen (in celebration of his 150th year), alongside several brilliant arrangements of Scandinavian folk tunes taken from the Quartet's highly acclaimed new album, 'Wood Works'. Expect irresistible, irrepressible fervour and energy, flowing through the performance of this talented young group.

After making their debut in the Copenhagen Summer Festival in 2002, the Danish String Quartet quickly drew acclaim and winning numerous awards, among them first prize at the Danish Radio P2 Chamber Music Competition in 2004 as the youngest ever winners. Along with many other accolades, the Quartet has won the 11th London International String Quartet Competition in 2009, and in 2011 was awarded the highly prestigious Carl Nielsen Prize, which is Denmark's top cultural prize. These qualities have led to success not only in Denmark, but around the globe.

Please complete the form below and return it no later than Friday 8th May 2015.

Kind regards

Deputy John D Chapman
